The Quicklaw™ service provides the information you need. Unparalleled content coupled with powerful features and functionality give you efficient access to cases, tribunal decisions, legislation, current awareness services, and an expanding collection of authoritative secondary and analytical sources. With Quicklaw, you gain access to the premier collection of Canadian and international primary and secondary content.

Now provided as part of the Quicklaw collection, Halsbury’s® Laws of Canada online* is the definitive general reference to Canadian statutory and judicial law. Upon completion in 2010, Halsbury’s will cover more than 100 subject areas in approximately 70 hardcover volumes. See page 3 to learn about the 32 volumes now available on Quicklaw. For an update on Halsbury’s titles now available in print, please see the list on page 11.

We’re pleased to announce The Canada Digest, a new, indispensable research tool on Quicklaw that enables convenient searching through case summaries using a browsable taxonomy. The Canada Digest organizes more than 800,000 case digests/summaries of court and tribunal cases into 52 areas of law. Turn to page 4 to learn about the starting point for primary law research for users in all areas of practice.

Quicklaw also provides the opportunity to access the most comprehensive collection of international primary and secondary legal content, including case law, legislation and case citators from the United Kingdom, the United States, Australia and New Zealand. Gain a global perspective on your area of practice with leading international sources in securities law, tax law, intellectual property law, and labour and employment law, and browse or search our International Forms & Precedents Collection. See page 7 for details.

We’re delighted to announce the upcoming launch of LexisNexis® Cost Recovery Manager, a new tool that pays for itself by helping your firm recover all appropriate billable costs. Learn more on page 8 about how your firm will be able to manage client validation, tracking and reporting more effectively. And turn to page 21 for the latest information about other LexisNexis® services that can help your firm succeed in the business and practice of law—including advanced tools to streamline litigation workflow in a difficult economy and the PCLaw™ billing and accounting software, used by 9,000+ Canadian law firms.

For French-language researchers, JurisClasseur Québec is the new essential source of judicial know-how in Quebec and Canada. Inspired by the classic JurisClasseur in France that brings a 100-year tradition of excellence, the JurisClasseur Québec encyclopedia is an authoritative and expansive body of work written by authors from Quebec and completely adapted to the needs of every legal professional. The first few volumes of JurisClasseur Québec are now available; see page 12 for more information.

Whether you need to expand your law library; power your research with improved functionality; tap into the broadest collection available of legal, news and business resources; or help your firm run more efficiently and effectively in today’s challenging environment, LexisNexis can help you work with confidence. As always, we look forward to your feedback and your ideas on how we can serve you better.
HALSBURY’S LAWS OF CANADA ONLINE

Now available on Quicklaw, the Halsbury’s Laws of Canada* online collection is the definitive general reference to Canadian statutory and judicial law. It is an encyclopaedic research tool, and its jurisdiction-specific commentary provides a complete analysis of the black letter of the law.

Covering over 100 subject areas in approximately 70 hardcover volumes (upon completion in 2010), Halsbury’s Laws of Canada is the authoritative reference of choice for Canadian legal professionals.

Features of this legal classic include:

- A comprehensive summary that offers an organized and authoritative reference, delivering the key elements of the law in each of the logically selected subject areas
- A black-letter statement of the law that provides definitive legal information focusing on the law as it stands today without opinion or commentary, and without archival case law or outdated statutory references that don’t illuminate or add value
- National scope and jurisdiction-specific commentary that provides a complete and integrated analysis
- Advanced research tools that present information in compact portions for easy navigation through the subject matter, yet detailed enough to show the larger context
- A Browse feature that provides an alternative to Boolean searching—simply drill down through headings and subheadings of the table of contents to browse the contents of a particular source

The Canada Digest is an essential research tool that enables practitioners, researchers, articling students and law students to conveniently search through case summaries using a browsable taxonomy.

Over 800,000 case digests/summaries of both court and tribunal cases are organized into 52 areas of law, making The Canada Digest the starting point for primary law research for users in all areas of practice. It is an especially beneficial starting point for those who are looking for case law dealing with a specific subject or legal issue, or who need to conduct research in an area of law that might not be particularly familiar to them.

Features include:

- Consistent Classification System — The sources contain digests of both court and tribunal decisions that have been uniformly classified using our bilingual LexisNexis® classification system, making searches straightforward and reliable.

- Browse Feature — With a browse feature, this research tool provides an alternative to Boolean searching. Simply drill down through headings and subheadings of the table of contents to find relevant groups of digests under your subject of interest and quickly locate cases on point. Or search with our easy, flexible and convenient search template—specially designed to optimize topical digest research, found under the Court Cases search subtab.

- Hyperlinking — Case citations are hyperlinked to the full-text version of each decision and to the decision in the other official language when available.

The Canada Digest offers seven bilingual titles pertaining to federal topics with links to cases in the other language:

- Canada Copyright Digest / Abrégé de jurisprudence – Droit d’auteur
- Canada Information Technology Digest / Abrégé de jurisprudence – Technologies de l’information
- Canada Patents Digest / Abrégé de jurisprudence – Brevets
- Canada Trade-marks Digest / Abrégé de jurisprudence – Marques de commerce
- Canada Employment Insurance Digest / Abrégé de jurisprudence – Assurance-emploi
- Canada Immigration Digest / Abrégé de jurisprudence – Immigration
- Canada Pensions and Old Age Security Digest / Abrégé de jurisprudence – Régimes de retraite et pensions

QUICKFIND™ WITH AUTO LINK

The QuickFind productivity tool* is designed to help lawyers, law firms and legal departments save research time by delivering case law and statute documents from Quicklaw to a desktop in seconds.

• Save the time, effort and cost of searching for and copying cases and legislation cited in documents — QuickFind retrieves or notes up case law and legislation cited in your firm’s collection of electronic resources such as word-processing documents, email messages, web pages and PDF documents directly from your desktop or intranet database.

• Automatically link your working documents to the vast collection of documents on Quicklaw with ease, speed and precision — View or print full-text cases, case summaries, section versions of Canadian statutes, QuickCITE™ Case Citator records, QuickCITE™ Statute Citator records, Canadian law journals and reviews, U.S. cases, and U.S. law journals and reviews on Quicklaw.

• Archive your very own list of previously searched citations — QuickFind lets you print and store previously searched citations in the History List for future case retrieval or noting up.

• Keep track of your QuickFind usage for billing purposes — The LexisNexis® PowerInvoice™ service helps you keep track of the billing for each client.

QuickFind comes with an add-on tool called Auto Link—provided at no additional charge. Auto Link securely scans documents you submit for citations and embeds links to the full-text decisions or statutes on Quicklaw.

• Enhance the value of your law firm’s intranet, document database and other electronic resources.

• Increase your efficiency by eliminating the need to exchange copies of cases or statutes cited in internal documents.

INTERNATIONAL LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT LAW SOURCES ON QUICKLAW™*

Labour and employment issues are integrally connected to business and trade. Stay ahead of the curve while understanding the labour and employment laws with key publications from Mealey’s™, Matthew Bender and other international sources.

Sources include:
• State Labor and Employment Cases (U.S.)
• Department of Labor ERISA Opinion Letters (U.S.)
• Current Legal Forms for Labor and Employment (U.S.)
• Tolley’s Employment Law Service (U.K.)
• Harvey on Industrial Relations & Employment Law Cases (U.K.)

For a complete listing of sources and for more information, contact your Account Executive.

INTERNATIONAL FORMS & PRECEDENTS COLLECTION

Available under the Forms search subtab, the new International Forms & Precedents search form provides Quicklaw users with the ability to browse or search the three new International Forms & Precedents collections:

• Warren’s Forms of Agreements™ (U.S.) — Consists of numerous well-defined and well-prefaced forms covering nearly every transaction that a solicitor will encounter in a business practice. The set serves as both a legal reference resource and a valuable drafting tool. Each chapter contains introductory material that provides legal and practical background information pertaining to the particular subject, followed by complete forms and specific clauses. Topics covered include business organizations, computer agreements, real estate, commercial loans and intellectual property.
• Atkin’s Court Forms™ (U.K.) — Provides you with an unrivalled collection of the main procedural documents required in every civil proceeding before the courts and judicial tribunals of England and Wales.
  ◦ Expert commentary provides guidance on general and specialist court procedures
  ◦ Over 10,000 forms and precedents, compliant with Civil Procedure Rules and fully annotated, are available online
  ◦ Drafted in a concise, modern and authoritative manner
• Encyclopaedia of Forms and Precedents™ (U.K.) — The most comprehensive source of transactional precedents in the United Kingdom, the Encyclopaedia covers almost every topic that both the specialist and non-specialist lawyer, in non-contentious fields of practice, are likely to encounter. It contains an unrivalled collection of 12,000 forms and precedents including drafting notes, alternate clauses and official forms, all accessible from a single research tool.

LEXISNEXIS® COST RECOVERY MANAGER

Integrate client validation and research tracking and reporting functions

Now you can get it ALL back. LexisNexis Cost Recovery Manager can help you maximize your cost-recovery efforts by helping you manage client validation, tracking and reporting more effectively. It’s easy to install, easy to use and will pay for itself by helping you recover all appropriate billable costs.

Quick and reliable client validation

If your firm requires you to enter a valid client identifier when you do online research, you won’t have to search for the identifiers again. Now you can validate client matters by pulling current client names, numbers and matter listings directly from your firm’s time and billing system. Eliminate hours of guesswork while billing your clients more accurately for online legal research.

• Easy to use — Perform three simple steps to ensure accurate billing information.
• Accurate — Access the information directly from your own billing system.
• Time-saving — Find the information you need without having to leave your desk.
• Cost-effective — Recover a higher percentage of your billable costs.

Convenient toolbar consolidates functions

After you install the Cost Recovery Manager, a LexisNexis® toolbar will be available in Internet Explorer® to validate your clients and matters on your system. The toolbar contains all the features required for the day-to-day use of Cost Recovery Manager.

• Recent Clients and Matters — Quickly select a client and matter for which you have recently performed research.
• Set Client — Validate against your client matter database to specify and track a client or matter for which to perform research, or specify a different timekeeper.
• Timer Options — Pause and resume timing your research, or stop and restart the timer.
• Program Options — Access the Admin page, configure the system to display custom reports and handle password management to auto-fill user-level logins and input fields on service sites.

Validate clients on multiple online services

Cost Recovery Manager can be integrated with both LexisNexis and Westlaw® Web, as well as any other web service. It can also be used to validate other fee-based or free web research services, such as BNA®, CCH®, RIA®, PACER and more.

Law firm administrators can maintain the database of services for which they choose to enforce validation of client identification, matter identification and timekeeper numbers.

Tracking and reporting functions expand LexisNexis Cost Recovery Manager capabilities

The research reporting and tracking capability of Cost Recovery Manager will allow you to track and produce reports that will tell you:

• Services accessed
• Who accessed the service
• The duration of research
• The client
• The matter
• Timekeeper information
• Date of research and other relevant data

Capture non-billable activities

Monitoring non-billable activities can be a challenge in managing your firm’s online research costs. Users may enter an invalid client number or tend not to pass charges on to a particular client.

Cost Recovery Manager can help you effectively manage your non-billable activity by setting up your firm as a non-billable client in your billing table.

For more information, contact your Account Executive.

Now Quebec legal professionals can gain access to the first few volumes of JurisClasseur Québec, the first-ever encyclopedia of Quebec and Canadian law.

- Century-Old Editorial Know-How — For over 100 years, the diverse encyclopedia JurisClasseur, published by LexisNexis France, has been the essential reference in terms of judicial documentation. The success of this colossal work relies entirely on a rich tradition of excellence from its authors and content.

- A Proven Method and Adapted Approach to Quebec and Canadian Law — JurisClasseur Québec, an encyclopedia inspired by the classic JurisClasseur from France, brings an authoritative and expansive scope of work to Quebec’s judicial community. Written by authors from Quebec, JurisClasseur Québec is completely adapted to the needs of every legal professional.

- An Exceptional and Carefully Selected Team of Authors — Quebec’s leading academic alumnae, experienced practitioners, and up-and-coming young authors—we have united the best to write the first and only French-language encyclopedia of Quebec and Canadian law.

- Relevant, Concise and Topical Information — In Quebec, as elsewhere, the proliferation of information and information channels makes it difficult to retrieve the information that is most useful and most worthwhile in the day-to-day practice of law. The JurisClasseur Québec encyclopedia is designed to meet the need for a synthesis of the essential elements of current substantive law. Its content relies on information that is relevant, concise and topical.

- Fundamental Coverage in Major Areas of Practice: Civil Law, Employment Law, Criminal Law, Business Law and Public Law — Published titles will cover the major law topics, including civil law, criminal law, business law, employment law and public law. Each topic will have its own collection, and each book can be purchased separately. Valuable discounts are available when purchasing an area-of-practice collection or for the complete JurisClasseur Québec encyclopedia.
Innovative Works Designed to Meet the Needs and Realities of Current Law Practice in Quebec

Here is how the JurisClasseur Québec encyclopedia distinguishes itself from other doctrinal works published in Quebec:

- One Subject, One Volume — Each collection consists of a set of volumes on a particular subject. Each volume is written by one or two authors.

- Synthesis of Current Substantive Law — The collection synthesizes the essential elements of law, enabling you to quickly find solutions to legal problems. Historical references are omitted, except when they are utterly essential to understanding current law.

- Relevant, Useful and Concise — These are the key content elements. The editing criteria are simplicity of expression, conciseness and information usefulness. Of the massive amounts of information available, only the most useful and relevant information has been selected, which accounts for the encyclopedia’s added value.

- Topical Information — The information contained in the JurisClasseur is updated at least once a year to reflect recent legislative changes, case law and doctrine.

- Tips, Warnings and Examples — The authors use prominent headings and comments to dispense their advice and clearly inform you of the pitfalls to be avoided. One or more brief examples illustrate the notion being expounded.

- Titles and Tools for Easier Consultation — Each volume contains specific elements designed to make consultation easier:
  - Key Points — Found at the beginning of each volume, the key points summarize the salient legal principles and provide a quick overview of the basic content.
  - Table of Contents — Each volume has a detailed table of contents, with references to the specific paragraph numbers.
  - Fine Index — A fine index at the front of each volume allows you to quickly locate information on a specific subject.
  - Numbered Paragraphs with Descriptive Titles — All paragraphs are numbered, for specific referencing. Each paragraph bears a descriptive title allowing the subject matter to be identified at a glance.
  - Bibliography — A list of current doctrine is provided at the end of each volume.

- Uniform Structure for All Volumes — All volumes have a uniform presentation and structure, greatly facilitating research and consultation of the collections published in JurisClasseur Québec.

TORT LAW

Economic Interests in Canadian Tort Law
Joost Blom, Q.C. and Peter Burns, Q.C.
This treatise looks at how the law protects purely economic interests from being injured through the acts of others. The concept “economic torts,” as discussed in this work, is not confined to those intentional torts that deal mainly or exclusively with economic injury. Rather, it also extends to the tort of negligence so far as it applies to pure economic loss, as well as to causes of action that have been more commonly identified as quasi-tort in professional and commercial settings.

SEnD To CASEMAp® FEAtuRE ON qUICkLAW™

Helps you integrate your research with the case analysis process

The Send to CaseMap feature on the Quicklaw service is as easy as “1-2-3,” and you can send pertinent cases and legislation from Quicklaw to CaseMap® case analysis software. Now the benefits of LexisNexis® CaseMap® are conveniently integrated with your research workflow:

- Organize — Identify and link facts, parties, Quicklaw research and legal issues in each case, and store them in specialized relational CaseMap spreadsheets for ready access—no more rummaging through piles of paper.
- Analyze — Through flexible filtering, CaseMap enables you to see how any person, fact or issue relates to all the other elements of your case. This helps your team see the big picture while revealing vital links in case information that might otherwise go undiscovered.
• Evaluate — By quickly seeing how facts and prior cases affect your key issues, CaseMap can help you evaluate a case’s strengths and weaknesses as you consider settlement or trial.

• Present — Dramatically reduce time and effort to produce reports, lists and motions for summary judgment.
