MarkMonitor—Brand Protection Available on LexisNexis

Legal professionals are challenged with uncovering online trademark infringement, managing and protecting large domain name portfolios, filing UDRPs—they continue to gain more responsibilities at an alarming rate. MarkMonitor offers a suite of real-time online brand protection tools and comprehensive reports that uncover brand misuse occurring anywhere on the Internet:

- QuickTools® allows unlimited search capability to investigate and protect your brands online, 24 hours a day. Highly focused search applications target the areas of the Internet where brand abuse is most prevalent: domain names, search engines, web sites, banner ads, and message boards.
- SmartReports™ provides a complete snapshot of how your brand is being used or misused on the Internet. Keep an eye on everything from metatag abuse to who's linking to your web site with the most comprehensive monitoring service on the market.

Access to MarkMonitor can become part of your subscription to LexisNexis at lexis.com or nexis.com®.
