

Celebrate Canada 150

with our Collection of Constitutional titles

Canada at 150: Building a Free and Democratic Society

General Editors: Heather MacIvor & Arthur Milnes

$150 | October 2017
ISBN: 9780433493617

This coffee table book is a pictorial celebration commemorating 150 years of Canada's legal and constitutional democracy as well as the 35th anniversary of the Constitution Act and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Featuring a collection of more than 50 curated essays on major political and historical developments in Canadian constitutional history written by key commentators and figures combined with lavish images of iconographic Canadian historical and contemporary individuals and landmarks, this book offers an insightful, balanced look at Canada's constitutional past and present, highlighting our achievements while acknowledging persistent injustices.

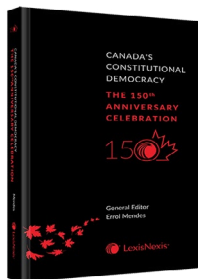

This commemorative keepsake features:

- Insightful essays and fascinating quotes from key participants in the development of the Constitution Act, 1982, including lawyers and judges with deep constitutional litigation experience and private individuals who have fought and won their own battles for rights and freedoms
- Contributions from:
  - Former Prime Ministers of Canada: Stephen Harper, Brian Mulroney, Paul Martin, Kim Campbell, Jean Chrétien, John Turner and Joe Clark
  - Significant political leaders: Ed Broadbent, Jean Charest and Bob Rae
  - Former Supreme Court Justices: The Honourable Michel Bastarache and The Honourable Thomas Cromwell
  - Madam Justice Andromache Karakatsanis
  - Constitutional law experts, including academics and experienced litigators including Brian Greenspan, Joseph Arvay, and Dean Strang ("Making A Murderer")
  - Political commentators: Steve Paikin and Hugh Segal
  - Historians, persons exonerated after wrongful convictions and many more

This beautiful volume will be an excellent addition to the bookshelves, reception coffee tables and libraries of law firms, individual lawyers and judges, constitutional experts and public libraries.

Canada's Constitutional Democracy: The 150th Anniversary Celebration

General Editor: Errol Mendes

$175 | September 2017
ISBN: 9780433494577

This landmark constitutional law and history text celebrates the 150th anniversary of Canada's Confederation through a range of perspectives from Canada's leading legal minds on constitutional law. It includes forewords from the Governor General of Canada, His Excellency David Johnston, and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, the Right Honourable Beverly McLachlin.

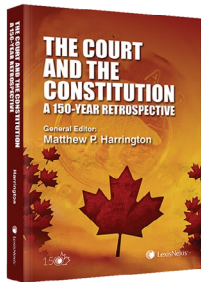

This book illustrates how historical, legal and political events shaped the development of Canada's Constitution over the past 150 years. It also examines overarching constitutional, political and historic themes that had a profound impact on how Canada evolved over 150 years, and how these developments set the agenda for the coming years and decades.

Chapters are divided into eras and five overarching themes of the 150 years since Confederation:

- Pre-Confederation (1763- 1867)
- Post-Confederation (1867-1900)
- World War I (1900-1920)
- Post-World War I / The Quiet Revolution (1920-1970)
- Establishment of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms (1970-1985)
- The Early Charter Years (1985-2000)
- The Millennium (2000- 2017)
- The Evolution of the Rule of Law in Canada
- The Canadian Constitution's Role in Challenging and Promoting the Rights of Racial and Ethnic Minorities
- Aboriginal Rights Today
- Political Parties and Their Influence on the Canadian Constitution
- The Influence of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms on the Constitution Act and the Division of Powers

The Court and The Constitution: A 150-Year Retrospective

General Editor: Matthew Harrington

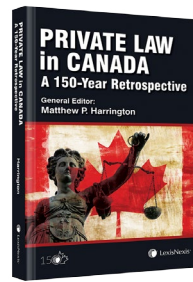

This unique collection of papers focuses on the role of the court in the development of three areas: Canadian Federalism, the Charter of Rights, and Private Law. It is the first title in the “150-Year Retrospective” series.

$110 | May 2017 | ISBN: 9780433493600

Private Law in Canada: A 150-Year Retrospective

General Editor: Matthew Harrington

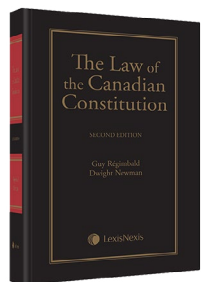

This is collection of papers reviews the development of private law in Canada since the Confederation in 1867. It is the second title in the “150-Year Retrospective” series.

$95 | September 2017 | ISBN: 9780433495109

The Law of the Canadian Constitution, 2nd Edition

Guy Régimbald & Dwight Newman

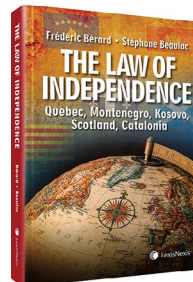

Get the complete picture of constitutional law and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Written for practitioners, this book provides fresh and current insights, up to date case law, and expert commentary and analysis of current and emerging issues in Constitutional Law.

$275 | June 2017 | ISBN: 9780433493822

The Law of Independence: Quebec, Montenegro, Kosovo, Scotland, Catalonia

Frédéric Bérard & Stéphane Beaulac

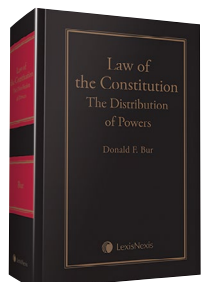

This text offers a theoretical and pragmatic analysis of the different aspects of the Supreme Court of Canada’s decision in Reference re Secession of Quebec, including the background and context leading up to the opinion.

$105 | January 2017 | ISBN: 9780433492375

Law of the Constitution: The Distribution of Powers

Donald Bur

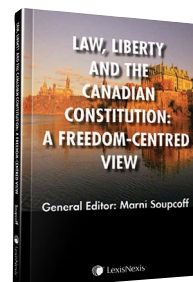

This book offers an insightful and thorough look at the distribution of powers in Canada between the federal and provincial governments, and provides an analysis of how the courts have treated and decided the issues that have arisen in this context.

$360 | 2016 | ISBN: 9780433391692

Law, Liberty and the Canadian Constitution: A Freedom-Centred View

General Editor: Marni Soupcoff

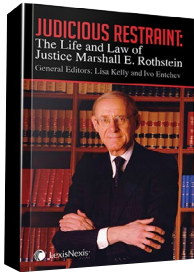

This is a collection of eight papers developed out of the Canadian Constitution Foundation (CCF)’s Annual Conference 2015. The papers take a critical review of recent legal developments regarding a number of controversial issues of national concern.

$99 | 2016 | ISBN: 9780433490395

Judicious Restraint: The Life and Law of Justice Marshall E. Rothstein

General Editors: Lisa Kelly & Ivo Entchev

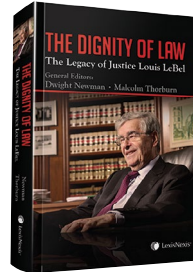

This collection of papers dedicates itself to the legacy of The Honourable Justice Marshall Rothstein, who became a judge of the Supreme Court of Canada in 2006 and retired in 2015. The papers celebrate His Honour's contributions to the legal developments in many areas of the law.

$110 | 2016 | ISBN: 9780433490654

The Dignity of Law: The Legacy of Justice Louis LeBel

General Editors: Dwight Newman & Malcolm Thorburn

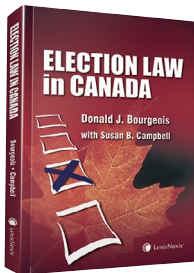

This volume of essays examines Justice LeBel's legacy both as a man and as a civilian judge operating in a bilingual country. With contributions from some of Canada's most eminent legal scholars, it provides valuable insight into the considerable impact Justice LeBel's judicial approach and decisions have had on the Canadian legal landscape.

$105 | 2015 | ISBN: 9780433487098

Election Law in Canada

Donald Bourgeois with Susan Campbell

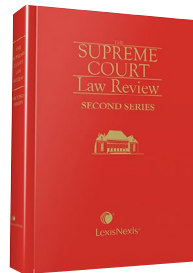

In this publication, author Donald J. Bourgeois delves into the topic of election law in Canada and provides valuable insight into this important and evolving area.

$95 | 2015 | ISBN: 9780433478522

Supreme Court Law Review, 2nd Series

General Editor: LexisNexis Canada Editorial

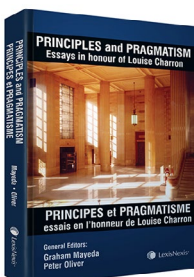

As the country's highest appellate court, the Supreme Court of Canada produces the nation's most authoritative jurisprudence. Since its initial publication in 1980, this series offers a thorough analysis of key decisions by the Supreme Court, while critically examining the soundness of those decisions.

$200 per volume | 3-4 Times Annually | ISBN: 9780409832600

Principles and Pragmatism: Essays in Honour of Louise Charron

General Editors: Graham Mayeda & Peter Oliver

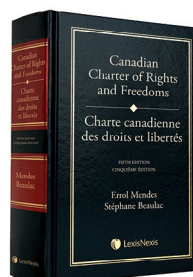

In this five-part volume, readers will have a chance to experience the insight, wisdom and knowledge of a remarkable Canadian jurist who always recognized fundamental legal principles such as the rule of law, and the values enshrined in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

$110 | 2014 | ISBN: 9780433474975

Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, 5th Edition

Errol Mendes & Stéphane Beaulac

This law book offers a comprehensive review of the evolution of the Charter in the Canadian legal landscape.

$320 | 2013 | ISBN: 9780433471400

Industry leading LexisNexis content delivers legal insight

 LexisNexis®