

Law and Business Library on Quicklaw

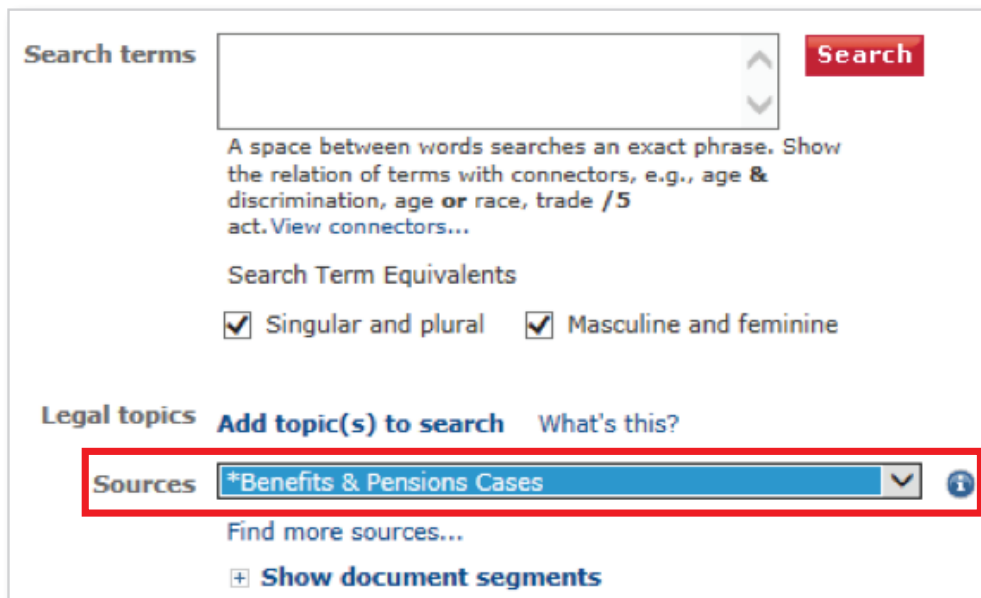

Searching Your Case Source

Once you have created a case source for your Law and Business title, simply follow these steps to conduct an efficient case search.

1. To access your newly created Law and Business case source, click on the Court Cases tab from the Quicklaw Home Page.

2. The Quicklaw Case Search Form will open. Select the relevant case source from the Sources drop-down menu.

3. Then, complete the Case Search Form as appropriate, and click Search.

Note: the example below depicts a key word case search that applies specific date and jurisdictional restrictions

The screenshot shows the LexisNexis Case Search Form with the following fields and values:

- Search terms: marriage /5 breakdown (highlighted with a red box)
- Search: Search button
- Search Term Equivalents: Singular and plural, Masculine and feminine
- Legal topics: Add topic(s) to search, What's this?
- Sources: *Benefits & Pensions Cases (dropdown menu)
- Case name: (empty text box)
- Citation: (empty text box)
- Specify date: Previous year (dropdown menu), 13 Nov 2014 To 13 Nov 2015 (highlighted with a red box)
- Summary: (empty text box)
- Jurisdiction: Ontario (highlighted with a red box), Nova Scotia, Nunavut, Prince Edward Island, Quebec
- Court: All Ontario Courts, Ontario Courts of Appeal, Ontario Superior Courts, Ontario Provincial Courts
- Judge, Panel or Arbitrator: (empty text box)
- Counsel: (empty text box)

- Your search results will appear on the next screen. Click on the desired document title to view the case.

LexisNexis® Quicklaw®

Start Page | Client: EGowan6 | View (0) | Preferences | Sign Out | Contact Us | Help

Helpdesk: 1-800-387-0899

Court Cases - Benefits & Pensions... > (marriage / 5 breakdown) (2)

Search Practice Areas Source Directory History & Alerts Results

Result Groups

View List

Narrow search

Sort Relevance

1-2 of 2

Next Steps Modify Search

View Tagged Add to Duplicate Options On What's this?

View Multiple Groups

All Results (2)

Source

Source Type

Cases (2)

Benefits and Pensions - 10 Cases (2)

Topics

Court

Case name & citation	Court	Judgment date	Source
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Rothschild v. Sardelis, 2015 CBPG para. 8145 ~ 12pp	ONSUPCTJUS	2015/09/07	Benefits and Pensions - 10 Cases
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. VanderWal v. VanderWal, 2015 CBPG para. 8117 ~ 5pp	ONSUPCTJUS	2015/01/21	Benefits and Pensions - 10 Cases

- Note: if you wish to note up the case, click on the parallel citation link at the top of the case and then select the Note up with QuickCITE link on the following screen. If this capability falls outside of your current subscription, you may opt to note up on a Pay-Go basis.

George Emmanuel Rothschild v. Mary Sardelis

2015 CBPG para. 8145

[2015] O.J. No. 4644

2015 ONSC 5572

Court File No. FC-12-0050

Ontario Superior Court of Justice

Before: Mackinnon J

Decision: September 7, 2015.

See commentary at CBPG para. 1271.

Employer plans - standards legislation — Parties' property division in 2014 provided equal financial holdings of approximately $915,000 and included each party's employment pension — Husband retired at age 62 with annual pension of $49,739 plus bridge of $10,556 to age 65 — Wife was age 56 with serious health issues, receiving annual disability benefit of $46,800 as of 2015, and was entitled to unreduced annual pension at age 60 of $16,168 — Resolution of spousal support was required and issue arose whether calculation of husband's post-retirement income for spousal support purposes excluded husband's pension income — Determination was required whether wife fell within exception from general prohibition against double-dipping with respect to husband's pension — Wife did not fall within exception — Supreme Court of Canada jurisprudence clearly set out circumstances when exception to double-dipping applied and wife's circumstances were not applicable — Wife did not show reasonable effort to use equalized assets to