What
people
are saying

“It can be challenging for in-house counsel to remain current with legal developments and apply those developments to drafting and legal strategy. Lexis Practice Advisor’s commentary and selection of precedents not only help me remain current, but also enable me to apply those developments to legal documents and strategy. It is a small investment that has already paid for itself. In addition, Lexis has excellent customer support. I would highly recommend this product to other in-house counsel.”

Karim Jiwa, General Counsel, Deecorp Properties Ltd.

“As General Counsel of a privately held company, it is important that I can quickly educate myself on areas of the law that I do not deal with on a daily basis so I can address a particular issue or intelligently direct outside counsel to do so. Lexis Practice Advisor is easy to use and will translate to reduced expenditure on outside counsel.”

Brad Busscher, General Counsel, Incapital Holdings LLC
