

Welcome to working smarter. Corporate Law Module

Practical guidance for Corporate Law practitioners

Get a handle on the Corporate Law issues that matter most today with the Corporate Law module of Lexis Practice Advisor Canada. It provides unique insights on the fundamental topics central to today's Corporate Law practitioners.

The module offers instant access to current and credible insight, guidance and model documents, all authored and updated regularly by leading corporate and business law experts from top Canadian law firms.

Legal practitioners will benefit from a complete analysis of a continually expanding range of topics within the practice of corporate law, including the establishment, management and control of corporations (OBCA/CBCA/BCBCA/ABCA), corporate liability, joint ventures and much more. The module also includes a wide array of exclusive international and cross border topics directly relevant to Canadian lawyers, such as Delaware Limited Liability Companies and US Business Corporations.
