Ontario Reports – Print and Digital

Profile

Reach the Ontario legal profession with targeted advertising in Ontario Reports, the only publication specifically devoted to case law in Ontario. Published by LexisNexis® for The Law Society of Upper Canada, judges and lawyers look to the weekly full-text journal of Ontario Reports for the latest in court decisions, practice directions, career opportunities and announcements to the profession. No other publication is as widely known or read by the Ontario Bar.

Ontario Reports has been published by The Law Society of Upper Canada for more than a century. Over 51,000 personally addressed copies of Ontario Reports are delivered every week to all members of The Law Society of Upper Canada; one to every judge, lawyer and paralegal in the province. This distribution is unmatched by any other legal publication in Ontario.

Each week a portion of Ontario’s legal community anticipates the arrival of their hard copy of Ontario Reports, while the balance receives email notification of the digital edition. Available on any computer, tablet, or smartphone, this digital replica gives lawyers and judges access from anywhere at any time. In today’s information-everywhere, all-the-time environment, the digital and print versions of Ontario Reports combine to ensure easy, trouble-free access 24/7 for Ontario’s legal community.

Current advertisers in Ontario Reports include companies promoting products and services to the legal profession, recruiters for the legal field, mediators, financial services companies and many more. Ontario Reports has become the place to generate referral business through advertising. Take advantage of this opportunity to reach the Ontario legal community with your message.
