Andrew Feldstein,
Feldstein Family Law Group

Prior to focusing exclusively on Family Law, Andrew's legal practice covered many different areas, including Corporate Commercial. Andrew was recently honoured (2010) with an inaugural appointment to the Dispute Resolution Officer ("DRO") Panel for Newmarket. This appointment was made by the Senior Family Justice for Ontario (The Honourable Madam Justice Mary J. Hatton) and the Regional Senior Judge for the Central East Judicial Region of Ontario (The Honourable Mr. Justice Michael Brown).

- Collecting and Verifying Disclosure from the Client

This practice note explores some of the early discussions that counsel should have with clients about the disclosure that they will be expected to produce and some of the methods that may be necessary to use if they cannot access certain documents — Founding Author: Justice Victoria Starr, Ontario Court of Justice (formerly of Starr Family Law). Updating Author: Elizabeth Virtue, LexisNexis Canada Inc.
- Keeping the Disclosure Organized

This practice note outlines how to set up a filing system to keep incoming documents properly identified and accessible— Founding Author: Justice Victoria Starr, Ontario Court of Justice (formerly of Starr Family Law). Updating Author: Elizabeth Virtue, LexisNexis Canada Inc.
- The Disclosure Exchange Process

This practice note outlines the procedures and their sequence for exchanging disclosure in ways that will minimize risk to the client's interests — Founding Author: Justice Victoria Starr, Ontario Court of Justice (formerly of Starr Family Law). Updating Author: Elizabeth Virtue, LexisNexis Canada Inc.
- Requesting Disclosure — Using Requests for Information

This practice note describes the use of Form 20: Requests for Information when making disclosure requests as a way of ensuring that requests for disclosure are properly framed to compel production or carry costs consequences for non-compliance — Founding Author: Justice Victoria Starr, Ontario Court of Justice (formerly of Starr Family Law). Updating Author: Elizabeth Virtue, LexisNexis Canada Inc.

- Memo to Clients Re: Documentary Disclosure

This precedent can be used as a model to design a memo for distribution to clients to describe their disclosure obligations and to provide answers to some of the questions that clients ask most frequently — Founding Author: Justice Victoria Starr, Ontario Court of Justice (formerly of Starr Family Law). Updating Author: Elizabeth Virtue, LexisNexis Canada Inc.
- Authorization and Direction

This precedent is a template for the client to authorize the delivery of personal documents from a third party, such as a former solicitor, insurer or a bank, to current counsel — Elizabeth Virtue, LexisNexis Canada.
- Disclosure Brief Index

This sample precedent provides an example of how documentary disclosure can be organized and indexed in a disclosure brief for service alongside the client's financial statement — Founding Author: Justice Victoria Starr, Ontario Court of Justice (formerly of Starr Family Law). Updating Author: Elizabeth Virtue, LexisNexis Canada Inc.
- Sample Request for Information (Form 20)

This precedent is an example of how to personalize a Form 20: Request for Information, when making a disclosure request in a family law matter.
