Newsletters

Every Law360 news section has a corresponding daily newsletter, delivered via email at the start of each business morning. Newsletters are organized by Top News, Expert Analysis, and other topics relevant to each section, and list organizations mentioned in the news in the right sidebar. They also include Legal Industry headlines and section-specific job postings.

Select SIGN UP FOR OUR NEWSLETTERS from the menu panel to sign up for newsletters and manage existing newsletter subscriptions.
Using Search

To pinpoint a specific topic, simply type a search query into the search box and click the blue magnifying glass. You can search by article title, keyword, case title or number, company, or firm.

Your query will yield any matching organizations, news articles, or federal cases.
Advanced Search

For more advanced searches, click ADVANCED SEARCH to the right of the search box. Use the menu on the left to toggle between news & expert analysis, cases, industries, companies, firms, and government agencies.

News results can be narrowed further by industry, legislative/regulatory topic, litigation type, practice area, rankings and other Law360 series, global region, state, or article subject.

For help with advanced searches, check out the Law360 Advanced Search Guide.
Advanced Search: Cases

Platform subscription required

To search our database of over 1 million federal cases, type party, counsel, judge, or subject matter into the search box, and click the blue search button. You can also use case type, matter, court, and industry filters to further narrow your search. Your query will yield any matching organizations, news articles, or federal cases.

Note: The Law360 case database includes most US federal district court cases with significant action since January 2011.
