

The Search Bar

You can use natural language for searching on the search bar. In the example below, we are searching for a partnership agreement.

Using Quotation Marks

Using quotation marks in your search looks for an exact match of what is in the quotation marks within the document body and will only return those results.

Pre-Search Filters

Before executing your search, you can pre-filter it by clicking on the "Search Everything" box which will give you the pre-search filtering options shown below. These filtering options will help you narrow your search by Content Type, Practice Area & Topic, and Jurisdiction.
